OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION POSTED ON FEBRUARY 18, 2015

LEGAL NOTICE
ATTENTION

The U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations which are mentioned below. Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Sections 8 and 9. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim of ownership not later than 30 days after the date of final publication of the notice of seizure, unless written notice is provided by personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. Upon the filing of a claim, a claimant, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f), may request release of the seized property during pendency of forfeiture proceedings due to hardship. In addition to or in lieu of filing a claim, if you want to request a pardon of the forfeited property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The petition must contain proof of your ownership interest in the property or proof that you were a victim of the offense underlying the pending forfeiture, or a related offense, and the facts and circumstances which you believe justify a return of the property, a return of your interest in the property, or a return of part of the property. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 9.5(b). You should file the petition within thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of seizure and intent to forfeit. Submit all documents to the nearest FBI Field Office, Attention: Forfeiture Paralegal Specialist. FBI locations and telephone numbers can be found in local telephone directories, through directory assistance with local telephone companies or by calling (202) 324-3000. When submitting documentation, please reference the FBI Seizure Number. Under certain circumstances involving seizures based upon the possession of personal use quantities of a controlled substance, expedited release procedures are available under the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. See 28 C.F.R. Sections 8.17-8.22. Legal notices regarding abandoned or unclaimed property in the custody of the FBI can be found at www.fbi.gov/legalnotices.

Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Sections 8 and 9. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim of ownership not later than 30 days after the date of final publication of the notice of seizure, unless written notice is provided by personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. Upon the filing of a claim, a claimant, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f), may request release of the seized property during pendency of forfeiture proceedings due to hardship. In addition to or in lieu of filing a claim, if you want to request a pardon of the forfeited property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The petition must contain proof of your ownership interest in the property or proof that you were a victim of the offense underlying the pending forfeiture, or a related offense, and the facts and circumstances which you believe justify a return of the property, a return of your interest in the property, or a return of part of the property. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 9.5(b). You should file the petition within thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of seizure and intent to forfeit. Submit all documents to the nearest FBI Field Office, Attention: Forfeiture Paralegal Specialist. FBI locations and telephone numbers can be found in local telephone directories, through directory assistance with local telephone companies or by calling (202) 324-3000. When submitting documentation, please reference the FBI Seizure Number. Under certain circumstances involving seizures based upon the possession of personal use quantities of a controlled substance, expedited release procedures are available under the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. See 28 C.F.R. Sections 8.17-8.22. Legal notices regarding abandoned or unclaimed property in the custody of the FBI can be found at www.fbi.gov/legalnotices.

ATTENTION

The U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations which are mentioned below. Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Sections 8 and 9. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim of ownership not later than 30 days after the date of final publication of the notice of seizure, unless written notice is provided by personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. Upon the filing of a claim, a claimant, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f), may request release of the seized property during pendency of forfeiture proceedings due to hardship. In addition to or in lieu of filing a claim, if you want to request a pardon of the forfeited property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The petition must contain proof of your ownership interest in the property or proof that you were a victim of the offense underlying the pending forfeiture, or a related offense, and the facts and circumstances which you believe justify a return of the property, a return of your interest in the property, or a return of part of the property. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 9.5(b). You should file the petition within thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of seizure and intent to forfeit. Submit all documents to the nearest FBI Field Office, Attention: Forfeiture Paralegal Specialist. FBI locations and telephone numbers can be found in local telephone directories, through directory assistance with local telephone companies or by calling (202) 324-3000. When submitting documentation, please reference the FBI Seizure Number. Under certain circumstances involving seizures based upon the possession of personal use quantities of a controlled substance, expedited release procedures are available under the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. See 28 C.F.R. Sections 8.17-8.22. Legal notices regarding abandoned or unclaimed property in the custody of the FBI can be found at www.fbi.gov/legalnotices.

LEGAL NOTICE ATTENTION

The U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations which are mentioned below. Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Sections 8 and 9. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim of ownership not later than 30 days after the date of final publication of the notice of seizure, unless written notice is provided by personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. Upon the filing of a claim, a claimant, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f), may request release of the seized property during pendency of forfeiture proceedings due to hardship. In addition to or in lieu of filing a claim, if you want to request a pardon of the forfeited property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The petition must contain proof of your ownership interest in the property or proof that you were a victim of the offense underlying the pending forfeiture, or a related offense, and the facts and circumstances which you believe justify a return of the property, a return of your interest in the property, or a return of part of the property. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 9.5(b). You should file the petition within thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of seizure and intent to forfeit. Submit all documents to the nearest FBI Field Office, Attention: Forfeiture Paralegal Specialist. FBI locations and telephone numbers can be found in local telephone directories, through directory assistance with local telephone companies or by calling (202) 324-3000. When submitting documentation, please reference the FBI Seizure Number. Under certain circumstances involving seizures based upon the possession of personal use quantities of a controlled substance, expedited release procedures are available under the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. See 28 C.F.R. Sections 8.17-8.22. Legal notices regarding abandoned or unclaimed property in the custody of the FBI can be found at www.fbi.gov/legalnotices.

ATTENTION
